OUR STORY

Gallery Alchmey seeks to represent work across painting, drawing, photography, sculpture and mixed media. With a focus on contemporary and emerging artists with the gallery featuring work with a modern, figurative sensibility that is emotionally rich and poignant, and also conveying wit and humour.

Gallery Alchemy represents emerging and established artists that demonstrate a sensitivity to the conundrums of modern life. With the galleries own influences stretching from Artemisia & Caravaggio to Van Gogh, to Yellow House to Duchamp, Dada, Brett Whitely and Charlie Sheard.

Featured artists often reflect a sensibility for light, colour, purity of craft and a hint of neuroses and angst of modern life that ultimately gives way to beauty. “I don’t believe in Art, I believe in the Artist”

– Marcel Duchamp

SALLY STOKES

Sally Stokes is a Sydney based abstract landscape artist who works from her studio amongst the angophoras in Dural and her boatshed studio in a remote part of the Hawkesbury river. Sally has completed a Bachelor of Fine Arts and a Masters of Analytical Psychology. She studied art at Hornsby TAFE and East Sydney TAFE (The National Art School). She has had seventeen solo shows and numerous group shows. She has been a Finalist in the Sulman prize and the Salon des Refusés and her work has been acquired by many private collectors in Australia and internationally. She is also represented in Public Collections: Newcastle Art Gallery, Artbank, Muswellbrook Regional Arts Centre and Hawkesbury Regional Gallery.
